fancy pony land

Moving frequently (her boyfriend is an itinerant park ranger) doesn't disrupt designer Lorna Leedy's work: Ever-changing landscapes are a constant source of inspiration for her Fancy Pony Land line. Leedy passed the last few seasons between Dinosaur, Colorado; Redford, Texas; Seattle; and New Orleans. The spring collection, marked by her signature vinyl and leather appliques—in this case, yellow roses, armadillos, and shiny silver revolvers—is a tribute to west Texas. "Everything in the desert wants to poke, bite, or sting you," says Leedy. "But the sunsets and scenery are beautiful." $95 to $650, available at Lipstick Traces (303 E. Pine St., 206-329-2813), Vain (2018 First Ave., 206-441-3441, vain.com), Seaplane (827 NW 23rd, Portland, 503-234-2409), and fancyponyland.com
